ATTACHMENT B

I, Ian Patel, am a Deportation Officer with the Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE"). I am fully familiar with the facts set forth herein based on my own investigation, my conversations with other law enforcement officers, and my review of reports, documents, and items of evidence. Where statements of others are related herein, they are related in substance and part. Because this complaint is being submitted for a limited purpose, I have not set forth each and every fact that I know concerning this investigation. Where I assert that an event took place on a particular date, I am asserting that it took place on or about the date alleged.

1. The defendant, RUBEN MIGUEL-MARTINEZ, (the "Defendant"), is a citizen of Mexico, and he neither is a citizen nor a national of the United States.

2. On or about May 10, 2012, the Defendant was arrested by the United States Border Patrol in Arizona for illegally entering the United States.

3. On or about May 12, 2012, the Defendant was ordered removed by the United States Border Patrol, and was removed from the United States to Mexico on or about May 18, 2012. Shortly before his May 2012 removal, an official from ICE took a fingerprint from the Defendant.

4. At some point after his May 2012 removal, the Defendant re-entered the United States without permission from either the Attorney General or the Secretary of Homeland Security.

5. On or about January 19, 2018, the Defendant was arrested in Red Bank, New Jersey, for Aggravated Assault, in violation of Section 2C:12-1(b)(2) of the New Jersey Code of Criminal Justice.

6. On or about January 19, 2018, ICE officers encountered the Defendant at the Monmouth County Jail subsequent to his arrest earlier that day and took his fingerprint at that time.

7. A fingerprint taken from the Defendant from his deportation records from the May 2012 removal was compared to the Defendant's fingerprint that was taken on or about January 19, 2018. Both the fingerprints were found to be identical.

8. Prior to the Defendant's re-entry into the United States, neither the Attorney General nor the Secretary of Homeland Security consented to the Defendant re-entering the United States. The Defendant also did not receive a waiver allowing him to re-enter the United States.
